

“...outstanding acoustic-based performances of classic songs, forgotten hits & past 'n' present crowd favorites!”

Let's face it, there's always been something very dynamic and special about an acoustic performance. In today's era of manufactured pop & studio trickery, audiences certainly appreciate the raw honesty and intimacy of a live acoustic performance... welcome Dino Jag “Acoustic”.

Presented as a duo or trio, these live performances feature the unmistakable voice of writer/producer & recording artist Dino Jag. Dino has performed and worked on recordings with such diverse artists as Rusty Anderson (Paul McCartney band), Christopher Violland (Andrew Strong - The Commitments), Barry Crocker, James Morrison & most recently with the Adelaide & Queensland Symphony Orchestras.

In acoustic mode, Dino Jag sheds his electronic equipment & digital gadgetry for an acoustic guitar & is joined on stage with some of Australia's finest musicians to deliver truly dynamic captivating live performances. With such a great selection of songs, the audiences are in for a real treat!

...don't be fooled by the “Acoustic” tag!

Dino Jag will get you singing along and shaking your derriere on the dance floor too!

“The demand for the acoustic gigs has been overwhelming” says Dino Jag. “People really enjoy hearing acoustic versions of their favorite songs. They are often quite surprised at how rich & full it can sound with just a couple of instruments & a vocal. In acoustic mode, my goal is to breathe new life into an incredibly diverse selection of great songs and to inspire crowd participation and audience interaction for a memorable night!
